October 2022

Dear Sir/Madam

Remembrance Day Parade - Sunday 13 November 2022 – Temporary Road Closure

The Annual Remembrance Day Parade and Service is to take place on Sunday 13 November 2022.

The Town Council has made application and been granted to temporarily close a section of Queen Street to High Street; High Street to Burgate; Burgate to Whitecross Street; Whitecross Street to Barrow Road (A1077) to Falkland Way, Barton-upon-Humber, to road traffic between 10.30 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. to facilitate the Remembrance Day Parade/Service.

The Remembrance Day Parade will take the following route:

Proceeding from The Assembly Rooms located on Queen Street at 10.30 a.m. onto the High Street (between Queen Street and Burgate), Burgate, Whitecross Street (between Beck Hill and Barrow Road junction) and Barrow Road to the Cenotaph for 11.00 a.m. Then, the reverse route back concluding at 11.30 a.m.

If you have any concerns or require further information, please contact the Town Council office as detailed above.

Yours faithfully,

Tracey Davis
